Instructions for PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D Sale, Exchange or Disposition of Property

PA-20S/PA-65 D IN (DR) 05-21

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE OF SCHEDULE

PA S corporations, partnerships or limited liability companies classified as partnerships or PA S corporations for federal income tax purposes use PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D to report the allocated gain (loss) from the sale, exchange or disposition of property within and outside of Pennsylvania.

NET GAIN (LOSS) FROM THE SALE, EXCHANGE OR DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

Entities must report the sale, exchange or disposition of capital assets and gains on the distribution of appreciated assets to its partners, members and shareholders (owners). The entity must report the gain on the sale, exchange or disposition of property to its owners in the year in which the amount realized from the conversion of the property into cash or other property exceeds the adjusted basis of the property. A loss is recognized only on transactions the PA S corporation or partnership entered into for profit and only in the taxable year in which the transaction, in respect to which loss is claimed, is closed and completed by an identifiable event that fixes the amount of the loss so there is no possibility of eventual recoupment.

 IMPORTANT: Include the sales, exchanges or dispositions of inventories and/or stock-in-trade in determining net business income (loss).

Use this schedule to report net gain (loss) derived from the sale, exchange or disposition of property, including real property, tangible personal property, intangible personal property or obligations issued on or after the effective date of this amendatory act by the commonwealth; any public authority, commission, board or other agency created by the commonwealth; any political subdivision of the commonwealth or any public authority created by any such political subdivision; or by the federal government as determined in accordance with accepted accounting principles and practices.

 TIP Amounts from federal Schedule D and other federal forms may not be accurate for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes.

Other issues that the PA S corporation or partnership must consider:

- Pennsylvania law recognizes capital gain distributions from mutual funds and other regulated investment companies as dividend income on the partner's/shareholder's (owner's) personal income tax return.
- Adjusted Basis - The entity determines the basis of real, personal, tangible and intangible property it acquired on or after June 1, 1971, on the date of acquisition.

The entity must adjust the basis of property it acquired before June 1, 1971, to reflect the property's value on that date. For determining a gain, the basis of such property is the greater of (1) the property's cost or other basis, as adjusted, or (2) the property's fair market value on June 1, 1971. For determining a loss, the basis of such property is the cost or other basis, as adjusted, without reference to its fair market value on June 1, 1971. For instructions on how to determine the basis of assets acquired on or before June 1, 1971, obtain REV-1742, Gain or Loss on Property Acquired Prior to June 1, 1971, PA Schedule D-71.

 NOTE: You classify gains and losses as net profits for Pennsylvania if you reinvest the funds in the same line of business within the same entity. You reinvest funds in the same line of business within the same entity only if you use the funds to acquire like-kind property used in the same business, profession, or farm. "Line of business" is defined by the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code. If you do not reinvest the funds in the same line of business, then you must report the gains and losses on PA Schedule D.

Refer to the PA Personal Income Tax Guide for specific rules related to Net Gains or Losses From the Sale, Exchange or Disposition of Property.

The determination of whether gains are classified as incurred in the ordinary course of operations of the business, profession or qualified activity are not determined based on the character of the federal income. As an example, ordinary income recapture is not automatically classified as incurred in the ordinary course of operations of the business, profession or qualified activity.

Likewise, as to the long-term and short-term federal classification as Schedule D gain:

- Aggregate federal gain (loss) from operations other than real estate is first aggregated and then classified for Pennsylvania personal income tax purposes as either Schedule D gain (loss) or net profit (loss).
- All aggregate federal gain (loss) that is not classified as net profits and reported on PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule M, Part I are adjusted for Pennsylvania/federal differences on the PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-I and PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-III.
- Gains from the disposal of IRC §179 property reported on the federal Schedule K-1 should be addressed on PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-I and/or PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-III, Line 6.
- Net IRC §1231 gain (loss) from federal Form 4797 is reported on PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule M and/or PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D. If IRC §1231 gain (loss) is classified as PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D gain, it is included in PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-I and/or PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-III and reported on Line 5. PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-I and PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule D-III also includes any other sales not included above. If IRC §1231 gain (loss) is classified to net profits from a business, it is included in PA-20S/PA-65 Schedule M, Part I.
